

600 MARINES OF DIXIE LAND AT CIENFUEGOS

Probably to Suppress Outburst

DISCUSSION IS NOW ON Between Factions With Taft
Party as Mediators
at Mariano

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)
HAVANA, Sept. 19.—Six hundred marines from the Dixie and Marietta landed at Cienfuegos this afternoon according to a dispatch.
It is supposed a fresh attack by insurgents surrounding the city caused the landing.

Meditation Begins
HAVANA, Sept. 19.—The Taft party arrived at 7:30. Taft and Bacon received Secretary of State O'Farrell aboard the Des Moines and called upon Palma at 10 o'clock.

The American commissioners, accompanied by a delegation of liberals headed by Zayas representing the insurgents, and a party of government supporters left at 11:30 for United States Minister Morgan's house at Mariano to begin their discussion of the situation.

The lid upon which Taft intends to sit covers a volcano. The well informed say American troops are certain to come though it may be weeks and possibly months but inevitable.

Both sides talk peace, but declare they will make no concessions.

Favor Annexation
Ninety per cent of the property is owned by Spaniards, Americans, English and Germans. They are practically solid for annexation.

English and German warships are near but avoid Havana, their governments relying upon Roosevelt.

Battleships Hurry
NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—The navy department announces the battleships Louisiana, Virginia and New Jersey will go direct to Havana instead of putting into Key West for further orders as intended.

A wireless says they were off Charleston, S. C., last night.

It is announced the Dixie at Cienfuegos will be replaced by the Tacoma or Cleveland and will return to Santo Domingo where trouble is brewing.

Call Officers Home
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 19.—Gens. Barry and Duval, attending maneuvers of the German army, have been ordered home immediately.

SUIT FOR $15,000 DAMAGES ON TODAY

Hugh Schultz Asks Jury to Award Him That Against Car Co.

Suit of Hugh L. W. Schultz, by his guardian E. W. Schultz, 312 Sumner street, against the La Crosse City Railway company for $15,000 for injuries which probably will cripple the youth for life, was started in circuit court before Judge Fruit this morning. Attorney A. E. Bleckman representing the plaintiff.

The complaint alleges that on or about May 18, 1905, Hugh Schultz was kicked off one of the street cars of the defendant company by a conductor and severely injured. For weeks he hovered between life and death at one of the local hospitals. Twice he has been operated upon, but the skill of surgeons is unable to aid him.

This morning the attorneys for the plaintiff and defendant were taken to the Schultz home where the testimony of the boy was taken. He is unable to appear in court, being compelled to lie in bed with a heavy weight attached to his leg. The testimony will be read to the jurors by the court.

The jury secured to hear the case follows:

Alfred Hemker, West Salem; Fred Ewart, Farmington; D. A. Linn, La Crosse; B. F. Keeler, La Crosse; G. W. Kremer, Farmington; Henry Knothe, La Crosse; Enos Streeter, Burns; August Brunner, Barre; W. A. Tripp, Campbell; Evan James, Bangor; F. H. A. Nye, West Salem.

At the spring term of circuit court the case was tried but the jury was unable to agree. Heavy damages were under consideration, but one juror held out for $2,500 while the others desired to award a much larger amount.

The case against the Wisconsin Light & Power company has been dismissed. Clerk of the Court George Wright has arranged the calendar as follows:

George F. Hauser versus Fred B. Smith.

Catherine Wurm versus Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railway company.

William Thorbus versus Jacob Stirnemann.

Phillip Quiggle versus H. Herman et al.

The cases will be taken up in this order when the Schultz case is finished.

The Olson trial ended the criminal calendar for the present. It will be resumed later, there being one or two criminal cases which must be tried at this term.

ACCOUNT FOR ALL BUT 3 OF VICTIMS

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 19.—Headquarters of the Rock Island issued an official statement saying only three were missing in the wreck in Oklahoma and that they hope to find these alive.

Say Only Few Died
LAWTON, Okla., Sept. 19.—Estimates of the dead in the wreck are low this morning, officials declaring only nine persons rode in the smoker at the time it plunged into the river and that all have been accounted for except three.

It is still possible the subsiding waters may reveal the bodies. Survivors tell harrowing tales of narrow escapes.

FURNISHED BRACES; PAID FREIGHT

That's the Hold-up Game of Railroad Lumbermen Kick on

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)
CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 19.—Charges of extortionate methods in the collection of freight rates for shipments of lumber were filed with the commerce commission today by the Pacific Coast Lumbermen's association.

It is alleged the roads forced the dealers to furnish braces weighing five hundred to a thousand pounds for each car and then to pay the freight on the braces.

The dealers claim they should not be forced to furnish equipment for the roads and then pay the freight on the same equipment.

Lumbermen claim they were forced to pay $10,000,000 yearly to western roads to supply deficiencies in equipment.

Ticket Brokers Enjoined

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 19.—The federal court this morning made permanent the injunction restraining brokers from selling tickets over trunk lines. The first order was entered immediately after the Chicago world's fair.

PLAINTIFF MISSING; BOY FREED

A. W. Hackbarth did not appear to prosecute Edward Koehler, 609 North Fifteenth and One-half street, for rubbing pepper on his lips in county court yesterday. Judge Brindley discharged the young man when the complaining witness did not appear.

Later Hackbarth put in appearance, telling Judge Brindley that he was satisfied to have Koehler discharged. The alleged crime was committed in a spirit of fun. It appears that Hackbarth is the butt of all jokes in the neighborhood where the interested parties live and is tantalized by the boys.

TIFLIS, Sept. 19.—Revolutionary Armenians on a rampage killed over a hundred Tartars.

WON'T REBUILD

Hixon Company Fears New Building Would Stand
Vacant so Drop it

Because they cannot secure a tenant for the building, Hixon & Co. probably will not rebuild the old Spence-McCord drug building, 206-208 North Front street. The building was destroyed by fire in May, 1905, and since the conflagration nothing has been done toward rebuilding.

Recently Hixon & Co. had plans for a fireproof three story building drawn. The plans called for a cost of about $15,000. The building was to be modern in every detail and proof against destruction by fire. Construction was to be started this fall that the structure might be completed by spring.

The only hitch in the negotiations was for a tenant. At that time the Hixons were corresponding with several parties with an idea of renting the new building when finished. These deals have fallen through and the rebuilding given up.

"The negotiations in progress to secure tenants have stopped and the building will not be constructed," said F. P. Hixon this morning. "We won't build until we have a tenant in advance."

"It looks as though the entire deal for rebuilding is off. Other tenants may be secured later, however."

MAY GET CHANCE TO EXPLAIN DEAL

Law May not Jail Gilbertson Without Giving Him a Chance

Motion to have the decision of Referee in Bankruptcy Prentiss, compelling him to produce $7,529.84 or go to jail for contempt of court, reviewed, was filed with Referee in Bankruptcy C. L. Baldwin this morning by the attorneys for Louis Gilbertson, the bankrupt Pearl street shoe merchant. Attorney Baldwin has succeeded Referee Prentiss and now has charge of the Gilbertson case.

At the last hearing before Referee Prentiss, the order was drawn compelling the payment. Later a motion for review of the decision was filed with the referee.

When Attorney Baldwin succeeded Prentiss, the attorney filed another motion planning to be on the safe side, whichever referee has jurisdiction.

Referee Baldwin has given no decision although it is probable that Gilbertson will be given a chance to explain.

Dying Mother Writes La-Crosse Authorities in Quest of Her Boy

Lying on her death bed, Mrs. A. Hackenbarth has written to the La Crosse police to locate her son. The aged woman knows that the end is not far off and desires to see her son before death. Mrs. Hackenbarth lives at Merrill, Wis.

Chief Byrne received the letter this morning. The police have been unable to find the missing boy although a search has been made and will be continued.

T. F. Trues, Merrill, wrote the letter for Mrs. Hackenbarth as the aged woman is unable to use her limbs.

PENNANT ON VIEW AT WIS. LIGHT CO.

Perhaps the most attractive decoration displayed in honor of the return of the champs Monday was that which appeared in the window of the Main street offices of the Wisconsin Light & Power company.

A magnificent group picture of the team, the one which has attracted so much attention during the past few days, was placed at the center of the great display window. Back of it, artistically draping the margins of the picture, a splendid bouquet of fall flowers lent grace to the picture, and above it all is stretched proudly in a breeze that doesn't blow the 1906 pennant won by the champs a year ago.

All sorts of baseball paraphernalia were scattered in artful carelessness about the central design, giving it a baseball effect that would make the enthusiastic fan stop before it and root industriously.

The display attracted much attention, there being groups of spectators loitering about it at all hours of the day.

Hurled Into Muddy La Crosse River

ONE ESCAPES BY FLEEING

Mrs. Klawitter Dies of Injuries and Body of Mrs. Yohe Unfound

Caught on the La Crosse river trestle of the Burlington as train No. 51 approached, making up time because delayed, Mrs. Stephen Yohe, 605 North Third street, was knocked from the bridge into the La Crosse river and drowned; Mrs. Carl Klawitter, 1023 South Second street, dashed from the structure into the river, suffering injuries which caused her death at the La Crosse hospital at 11 o'clock last night. Mrs. Jacob Wendling, 829 South Fifth street, the third member of the party, escaped by running across the ties to the bank.

The accident occurred at 6:45 o'clock. The women were crossing the bridge when the train approached, but thought they were in a position of safety. The train was nearly an hour late and was speeding to make up lost time when the accident occurred.

"There comes a train, but it can't catch me," said Mrs. Wendling as she heard the clanging bell in warning. She was in advance of Mrs. Klawitter and Mrs. Yohe, going to the Yohe home for a visit. Mrs. Wendling ran to the bank, paying little attention to her companions.

Women Knocked Into River

The other two sat down on the ties. Engineer Blanchett saw them, but claims the women were not struck by the engine. As the monster passed the women shivered in fright. The steps of the first coach dashed them into the treacherous and swirling waters of the La Crosse river twenty feet below.

Mrs. Yohe disappeared from sight immediately, the current snatching her frail body. Mrs. Klawitter was more fortunate, the current washing her to the bridge piling where her body was caught and remained until help arrived.

Knutte Smeboz, an employee of the La Crosse Gas & Electric company close by, saw Mrs. Klawitter caught in the piles. He jumped into the river, swimming for her assistance. Once at her side, he unbuckled his belt and fastened it to her. A moment later the train crew threw a rope and Mrs. Klawitter was hoisted into a boat and taken ashore.

Ordered to Hospital

Dr. F. C. Suiter was nearby and ordered the woman to the La Crosse hospital immediately. Exhaustion in the water, the fright and the injuries received from the car steps made the move imperative. Mrs. Wendling accompanied Mrs. Klawitter to the hospital. At 11 o'clock last night Mrs. Klawitter died, after showing signs of a quick recovery. Death probably was due to the nervous shock and exhaustion caused by floundering in the water.

With Mrs. Klawitter rescued, a searching party immediately was formed to find the body of Mrs. Yohe. Patrolman Thomas McDonough of the central police station was placed in charge. A boat was secured and the dark banks of the treacherous river searched by the aid of a lantern. The body was not found, the search being continued almost all night. It is feared by relatives that the remains have been washed into the Mississippi about one mile distant.

Some say that Mrs. Klawitter and Mrs. Yohe jumped into the river. The Incendiary Dies in Blaze he Started

TROY, N. Y., Sept. 19.—Peter Curley of this city, a noted gambler, bank robber and ill around crook, died in the homeopathic hospital, Albany, as the result of being burned in a saloon fire last night. Having gone into the place for the purpose of setting it afire, according to the police, he was caught in his own fire trap, the fuse which he used being so short that an explosion occurred before he could make his escape from the place.

When the firemen arrived Curley was unconscious on the floor, severely burned about the head and shoulders. They fought their way into the place and rescued him only after a hard struggle with the flames. When informed at the hospital that he was dying he called for a priest and his wife.

Curley was 67 years of age and first came into prominence by his participation in the robbery of the Waterford bank in 1873. He and his accomplices secured $200,000 in this haul.

Several times he has been accused of being a professional firebug, but his accusers were never able to prove the charge. Curley was known throughout the state in sporting circles, and, despite his criminal tendency, his gentlemanly manner and true sportsmanlike conduct in games of chance gained for him many friends.

May Use Knife in Prison

TOLEDO, O., Sept. 19.—Dr. Peter Donnelly, the Toledo physician who so successfully operated on criminal children; came out with a statement that he favors the state's investigation of cases to ascertain the practicability of trying surgery in the state penal institutions. Dr. Donnelly says:
"I believe the state could profitably take up this question and apply it to the state institutions. There are two great reasons why the state ought to do this. One is from the humanitarian standpoint; the other from a monetary standpoint. If by operation it can be established that incorrigibles can be cured it will be a great blessing to humanity. The number of inmates of these institutions would be appreciably lessened. Naturally it would mean a great decrease in the cost of maintenance in these institutions and the state would benefit both ways.

"I would like to see a commission appointed to take up this question and study it for a year or more.

"Brain surgery is in its infancy and experiments along the line of curing incorrigibles from pressure may lead to the discovery for a sure cure for cases from abnormality."

ACTRESS CATCHES MILLIONAIRE

FARGO, N. D., Sept. 19.—Miss Florence Chambers, leading woman of "The Maid and the Mummy," has left the stage to wed a millionaire.
Her fiancé is Frederick Bosson, vice president of the Calumet and Hecla Mining Company. "The Maid and the Mummy" company appeared at Calumet Aug. 31. Bosson met the star there and after the company left that point his letters and telegrams followed her everywhere. When Miss Chambers reached here she consented to become Mrs. Bosson and has gone to Calumet, where she will be a guest of Mr. Bosson for two weeks before their marriage. Mr. Bosson, a widower, has a seventeen-year-old daughter.

MILLIONAIRE IS SCALDED

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 19.—John Harvey, a millionaire coal operator of Denver and Leadville, died at the Hotel Lankershim as the result of a bath, taken either voluntarily or by accident in water heated almost to the boiling point. Harvey died in great agony. He had been at the Lankershim for two months and had been melancholy since the sudden death of his daughter about a year ago.

"COLLEGE WIDOW" WINS EVERYWHERE

Entrancing in its simplicity and spontaneity, exciting from its first moment to its last, the liveliest attention and interest, "The College Widow" which is the attraction at the La Crosse theater Thursday, Sept.
20, is a secure and substantial success.
George Ade delivered the manuscript of this comedy with every confidence, but it is doubtful whether even his most sanguine hopes had pictured the exceptional success with which it has met. "College Widow" statistics show to date forty-two weeks in New York, seventeen weeks in Chicago, sixteen weeks in Boston, and consistently long runs in other large cities, with average receipts unmatchable by an similar amusement venture.

Henry W. Savage, whose good judgment in the selection of plays has become proverbial, is the fortunate owner and producer of "The College Widow." With an inherently good property to work with, Mr.

Savage supplied Mr. Ade's comedy with every auxiliary advantage. Nothing has apparently been left undone, from the selection of actors to the most minor of details, to provide correct atmosphere and proper embellishment. Mr. Savage's general stage manager, George Marion, has worked in beautiful harmony with the author and the result is a series of unique situations and effects in accentuation of every verbal point of the book. The football scene of the third act, showing in striking fidelity to detail, an eager, jostling, boisterous grand stand of people, is a triumph in stagecraft.
The faculty reception in the gymnasium is replete with irresistibly funny touches of nature while the wild celebration of the local team's victory in the final act caps the climax of this well conceived, perfectly constructed and carefully produced play.

Mr. Savage has given much personal consideration to the casting of "The College Widow" for the present tour.
It is a play of types and much depends upon the personality of the interpreting company.

A Good Thing

Frank G. King, is again starring this season as Andy Markoe in "A Homespun Heart." Mr. King knows a good thing when he sees it, and so does the public, and that "A Homespun Heart" is a good thing, admits of no question. Those who have seen it, evince a desire to see it again, and never fail to do so, when an opportunity is afforded them. This play is not only interesting from a dramatic standpoint but on account of its moral aspect as well. It abounds in wholesome influences and teaches a salutary life-lesson—nor is it devoid of the comedy element. Andy's quaint humor is irresistible and convulsing.
Mr. King has taken care to surround himself with a capable company of actors, singers and dancers. The scenery is beautiful and our theatergoers may rest assured of seeing something unusually good at the La Crosse theater on Friday, Sept. 21.

Over Niagara Falls.

A melodrama in beautiful settings will be offered to the patrons of the La Crosse theater Saturday evening, Sept. 20. "Over Niagara Falls" has been styled by a well known critic in Chicago, "a different kind of melodrama." There is nothing revoltingly lurid about "Over Niagara Falls," nothing which does not seem perfectly natural and within range of possibility, and there is not a line in the entire production which savors of vulgarity. There are certainly matters which recommend it when considered carefully. Apart from its scenery and realistic features, "Over Niagara Falls" has one of the strongest casts ever seen outside of the high priced productions.

At the Unique

One day this week a party of ladies and gentlemen were standing on the corner of Third and Main streets waiting for a car, when peal after peal of laughter reached their ears. One of the men asked: "Where does that laughter come from?" One of the ladies replied: "Where does it come from? Why the Unique theater of course. Where did you think it came from, Kroner's hardware store or Tillman's undertaking establishment?"
She was right. The audience at the Unique were laughing at that mirth-provoking picture "Stop Thief." The audience was not to blame, but funny pictures are not the only pictures at the Unique. "Burma," portraying scenes and costumes in India is interesting to all readers of travels and history. "Secret Service," "A Good Hearted Judge," "Trained Bears," a vaudeville in pictures. Two beautiful illustrated songs are among the attractions.

A GREAT SHOW AT BIJOU THIS WEEK

This week caps the climax at the popular playhouse, the Bijou. A vaudeville bill such as has not been seen for many a day is put on.

Frank Maikley, who styles himself

Banjo Virtuoso, is a wonder and should be called the banjo king. His work on the banjo is such as has never been seen or heard in La Crosse. This act must be seen and heard to be appreciated.

The next number is Mr. and Mrs.
Lee. Mr. Lee was seen some time ago in La Crosse with the haunted cabinet act which was a mystery to all. This time he mystifies his audience with a beautiful hypnotic illusion entitled "A Roman Sibyl's Dream."

Then comes Tulsa, the girl with the big black eyes. Tulsa is a beautiful woman and her act is well deserving of much credit. Her Indian song
"Siler Heels" is beautifully staged with special scenery and wardrobe.
She wins the hearts of her audience
when she sings "Cheyenne," the cowboy love song, and before they realize it everyone is singing the chorus and applauding for more.

Mr. Wall sings "In After Years
When I Am Old," illustrated. This is the prettiest song that has been put on at the Bijou this season.

Rentron and Jansen in the "Second Mr. Fiddle," close the vaudeville part of the program. Their act is a laugh, yes a scream, from start to finish and when it comes to operatic singing they are not found wanting in that line.

The moving pictures also are a feature of the program. First is a comic entitled "Extraordinary Dislocation."
The next is "The Wedding of King Alfonso at the Church," and the last picture is one that is too comical to be described. Taking the whole show into consideration it is a treat to La Crosse.

Does the Stove Putty Question Interest You?

Want to know why a stove with puttied joints is expensive?

WHEN a stove manufacturer doesn't know how, or doesn't want to spend the money necessary to make an airtight stove, he plugs up the cracks with stove putty.

Oh yes, that stove will heat as good as any of them for a few weeks, perhaps.

It isn't long, though, before the putty dries up, contracts and falls out.
Then you have a chink or crevice,
open to the suction from the chimney.

The valuable gases, which should be burned, are forced up along with the smoke.

So is most of the heat.

If you want to see a stove that is airtight throughout, and which will save you enough on fuel the first winter to pay for itself, come in and examine Cole's Original Hot Blast.

Made without putty, and is guaranteed to remain airtight during the entire life of the stove.

Burns Hard Coal, Soft Coal, Slack,
Lignite or Wood.

Ask for free booklet on Scientific Combustion, which will solve the fuel problem for you in one short lesson.

WEEDS SPARE FATHER, BUT POISON A LITTLE GIRL

Daughter of Martin Peterson of the North Side is in a Serious Way From Weeding Berry Patch

A peculiar case of poisoning by coming in contact with poison weeds of some species, exists in the condition of the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Peterson, 1830 Wood street.

The little girl had been picking weeds out of the strawberry patch in the rear of the yard and both of her hands and one of her feet has been affected. She can not use either one of her hands at present, but the case has not developed very far yet, and it is expected that she will be able to get it out of her system.

Her father also picked weeds in the same patch, but was not affected in the least.

Dr. J. L. Callahan is attending her.

SON OF WEALTHY MAN IN PRISON

WATERBURY, Conn., Sept. 19.—Charles F. Bronson, son of the late Deacon L. I. Bronson, president of the Benedict & Burnham Manufacturing company of this city and one Connecticut, concluded a long career of crime at Springfield Mass., today when he was sentenced to three years in prison for the wholesale theft of brass and copper from Springfield factories. He received his sentence with a laugh, remarking: "Well, my friends won't worry about me for a while now, anyway."

A graduate of Yale, lavish with his money and enjoying a prominent social position, Bronson operated for years in this and other cities along the lines made famous by Raffles.

His first exploit was the rifling of a clothes line at a school for young women. Afterwards he picked the pockets of the inmates and then made a specialty of stealing jewels from women he met at dances. At first his exploits were the result of a reckless disposition. When cornered he usually restored his plunder with a joke, and his millionaire father gave thousands in payment for what he called the boy's pranks.

A series of similar escapades at last forced his despairing father to disown him. Then the young man became desperate in his thefts. He robbed the Yale dormitories, passed bad checks on army officers and finally degenerated into picturesque but very businesslike crook.

PASTORS FOR UNION AGAINST DIVORCES

OMAHA, Sept. 19.—Stringent rules governing the remarriage of divorced persons are recommended by a committee of the Ministers' Union, which presented a form of pledge for signature by the members.

The pledge contains seven clauses and the ministers are asked to sign such as agree with their convictions. The first merely requires the signer to make a careful inquiry as to former marriages that he may judge of the propriety of officiating.

Other clauses require a year to have elapsed since the divorce, and forbid remarriage of "the offender against the former marriage bond," or where the divorce is obtained by collusion without adequate grounds. The final clause is a pledge against the remarriage of any divorced person whatsoever.

LAWSON EXPOSES MORE OF GRAFT IN APPEAL TO POLICY HOLDERS

BOSTON, Mass., Sept. 19.—Thomas W. Lawson has addressed the following communication to the policyholders of the New York Life and Mutual Life Insurance companies:

"There is a battle on between the 79,999,400 American groundlings and the 400 of dollar royalty, and the life insurance section of it is getting down to the grits. The papers all over the land this morning contain a letter of advice to that portion of the groundlings who have life insurance imbedded beneath the ribs. The letter is signed by a famous Plymouth Rocker in whom the American people have every reason to repose great confidence—Henry Siegel.

"Let the New York and Mutual policyholders take a think, and consider the effrontery of a man who, when he does not know who the other directors are to be, advises the policyholders to elect a gang of proven and self confessed thieves rather than another set knows nothing about conducting the life insurance business. When the policyholders ponder this, the business of the letter will loom up to them like a row of President Roosevelt's teeth. What this man really says is:

"There are no men honest and experienced enough in life insurance to conduct the business but the Rogers-Rockefeller-Morgan gang of web-footed stool pigeons."

"Bah, Mr. Siegel. Bah!"

PORK CHOP STARTS FATAL ROW

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 19.—Because when he wanted a hamburger steak he was served with a pork chop, Vespo Rocco, an Italian who came here from Antigo two days ago, tried to kill Jasper Caro, a waiter, and was arraigned in the district court on a charge of assault with intent to commit murder. The testimony showed that Rocco came into a restaurant in the Italian quarter and called for chopped meat, meaning hamburger. The waiter brought him pork chops. Rocco flew in a rage and refused to accept the order. Then he quieted down and offered to buy drinks, asking Caro to drink with him. When the waiter approached Rocco drew a knife and stabbed him in the breast, inflicting a serious but not dangerous wound. Caro is in the hospital. Rocco fled but was captured.

GROOM DOWNS SKIRT TO ESCAPE FRIENDS

DES MOINES, Sept. 19.—Rather than be kidnapped on his wedding night by his fellow officers, Chief of Police J. W. Jones of the Des Moines department slipped out the back door of the home at Mitchellville last night where he had been united in marriage to Miss Millie Zems, borrowed a dress, hat and veil of a neighboring woman and took a train for the west where from Omaha several hours later he telegraphed for his bride to meet him. Mrs. Jones knew what her husband had done and was not disturbed by his disappearance. At midnight she took the train for Omaha, and joining Chief Jones will spend a honeymoon in the west.

KILLS BEAR WITH HAMMER

OURAY, Colo., Sept. 19.—While on his way to work yesterday morning at the North Star mine on Mount Abraham, James Kinley came face to face with a huge bear in a dense raspberry patch. Kinley was armed with a gun loaded with bird shot and a double-hand drill hammer. The discharge of the gun in the bear's face infuriated the beast and Kinley resorted to the hammer, swinging right and left as the animal rushed in and clawed him. Finally a blow felled bruin and he was soon slain. Kinley walked ten miles to the doctor's to get his wounds dressed, dragging the larger part of the carcass.

POWERS, SKIDDOO—23

Mr. Powers, of Illinois, president of the Wisconsin state league, was slated to become an issue in the reorganization for next year. The issue was to be whether he should go or stay. He was thought to have some support, and he was known to have some opposition.

Now, however, it appears that Powers will not rise to the dignity of an issue. His conduct has made him no friends nor admirers. He has gained the reputation of being a "salver" whose sunny side was always turned on the team he happened to be nearest at the time. At Freeport he was always with Freeport and at La Crosse he was always with La Crosse. The managers "got on." Freeport loved him less as it knew him more. He proved utterly lacking in that executive ability and firm decision essential in a league president. His quibbling and vacillation on the decision regarding the three contested games that might have become an element in the winning of the pennant was characteristic, and showed pitiable weakness. His re-election seems undesirable and improbable.

THE FANATICISM OF FANS

We have said some hard things about the sort of people there are in Freeport. We have resented treatment accorded our players, and we have grown to actually believe that Freeport is a city of hoodlums. Freeport no doubt has conceived the same view of La Crosse and its people.

There are some rowdies in Freeport. But most of the people in both Freeport and La Crosse are excellent folk, good citizens, generous hosts, pleasant guests—everything that an American should be.

Truly, what we have complained of in Freeport and what Freeport has complained of in La Crosse is something commendable in any city. It is home enthusiasm, town loyalty. Those Freeport people are fans, genuine fans. We are getting to be fans up here. At times, under intense excitement, fired by an unreasonable patriotism, alert to criticism, the people of both cities may have done and said things that were extravagant. The newspapers have at times been savage in their partisanship. The fans have been too vigorous in their language. But it was nothing. Nothing to regret. No apologies are needed or wanted either way, for when cooled off the fans here will understand the fans there and vice versa.

We believe La Crosse would like to see Freeport in the league next year. They are royal fighters. They will wage relentless war for the 1907 pennant. There is no quitter among them. We want to beat them again, and if we can't we want to take defeat as gracefully as they are doing. We want to see that team square away on the home diamond next year with every man from the brilliant young manager-player, Moriarity, down to the last utility man, in his place.

McGovern having been defeated for the nomination to the great delight of all men to whom criminal prosecutions are distasteful, and Mike Dunn, the most conspicuous of the grafters, having been liberated after the usual "physical decline" in prison, things are ripe for a prosperous year in Milwaukee.

There is a foolish poem that begins,

"She bought the kid a lid, she did.

The lid half hid the kid, it did."

Now, if some of the misbehaved sort of people don't mend their ways to the point of apparent daylight decency, there'll come an outburst in La Crosse e'er long and Miss Piety will buy a lid, so big that under it La Crosse will be half hid.

Down in New Hampshire the defeat of Winston Churchill for the republican gubernatorial nomination was sought by the standpat or stalwart element of the party Churchill, a good author and a man of liberal ideas although untried as to his statesmanship, advocated some of the things that La Follette and Davidson stand for in Wisconsin. Of course he must be beaten, so there was had resort to the customary herding of candidates. Every vicinity had its stalwart candidate and these, securing the local delegates, were able to pool them against the man who would lay desecrating hand on the public utility grafts and grafters.

Barney Valentine, a defeated candidate for clerk of court, can join with Punch Robertson in speculating as to which one lost because both had the confidence of their partisans so surely that the faction could not hit upon a choice between them and the vote was therefore split. Mr. Valentine's career in the city council has demonstrated beyond question his fitness to hold important public office, and we believe that should he ask preferment from the city alone instead of from both county and city, his good work will be approved at the polls.

At Milwaukee, Milwaukee day at the state fair broke all attendance records. At Minneapolis, Minneapolis day broke all records. At La Crosse we MUST see to it that La Crosse day breaks all records. And we must see to it that every day is a record breaker. The improvement in the fair warrants it.

Get out to the Saturday and Sunday La Crosse-St. Paul games. The boys, our winners of two pennants, get the money. And while these games will be intensely interesting and significant in the comparisons they afford, we mustn't forget the paramount issue which is that the boys need the money.

There is no need of a fight in the republican convention of candidates to select a platform. There will be none between Senator La Follette and Governor Davidson. If, however, the versatile Mr. Connor seeks to crown Mr. Davidson with a stalwart crown, there will be a most terrific battle in which our Canadian-Irish friend's claws will be trimmed to the quick. You see, it really wasn't Connor who nominated Davidson—it was the republicans of Wisconsin. Connor found early in the game that they would not have him, and with his usual keenness he tied himself to the tail of the Davidson kite. And if Davidson is the man the people have shown they think he is, Connor will get the surprise of his life when he tries to take the tiller and steer the ship of state into a stalwart harbor.

BUILD SEWER TO PREVENT OVERFLOW

To prevent flooding of the streets, basements and cellars during the spring and after hard rains, the board of public works has constructed an overflow sewer from Ninth and Green Bay streets to Swift creek, the drain and sewer system of the John Gund Brewing company. The work was completed this morning.

Each spring the water collects at Ninth and Green Bay streets. The sewer is unable to carry it off. Cellars and basements usually are flooded while the residents make complaints to the board. The construction of the sewer was deemed advisable by the board and the work hurried through.

Formerly there was a sewer there, but when the Gund cooper shop was built, the sewer was destroyed. It passed through the cooper shop.

ALYWARD ARRESTS MILLIONAIRE

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 19.—City Attorney John A. Alyward, democratic nominee for governor, has ordered the arrest of Millionaire Frank A. Ogden on the charge of having rented the Ogden hotel for disorderly purposes.

This is the result of the raid on the Ogden hotel several days ago and the pleas of guilty on the part of John Bell, manager of the house, his wife, and two young women, all of whom pleaded guilty to different charges made against them under the disorderly statute.

Ogden claims that he does not own the house, having sold it three years ago to a Louisville (Ky.) man. He says that he holds a mortgage on the property and collected the rent to satisfy this mortgage and interest.

INJUNCTION STOPS A SALOON WAR

BURLINGTON, Iowa, Sept. 19.—The anti-saloon injunction cases were called in the District Court but no action was taken, owing to the fact that J. T. Hauser of Des Moines, attorney for the State Anti-Saloon League, who is conducting the cases, was not present. Mr. Hauser sent a telegram stating that he could not be present until Thursday, and asking that the cases be postponed until that date, which was done. The courtroom was crowded with saloon-keepers and their sympathizers and intensity of feeling prevailed, although there was no disorder. Regarding the report that the anti-saloon element had asked for the protection of the state militia, President Patterson of the Civic Federation said today that no such action had been taken by that body as yet.

H. B. IRVING COMING

LONDON, Sept. 19.—Henry B. Irving and Dorothea Baird, with their London company, sail today for New York to begin their first American tour. Early next month they will appear at the New Amsterdam theater in New York opening their engagement with Stephen Phillips' "Paolo and Francesca."

CAUGHT

injuries to the body of Mrs. Klawitter show that she was struck by the train. If the body of Mrs. Yohe is found injuries also may be found upon her which will bear out the statement.

Ignorant of Accident

"I didn't know anything had happened to my friends until a railroad man asked me if I was hurt," said Mrs. Wendling after the accident. "I ran when the train approached, never looking back to see what had happened."

"When the train stopped, the man asked me if I was hurt. I said 'no.' Mrs. Yohe and Mrs. Klawitter probably became excited and either were struck by the train or jumped into the river."

Body Not Found

Stephen Yohe, the swarthy husband of the drowned woman conducted a search all day long today for her body, with the assistance of a couple of friends, but up to this afternoon had found no trace of her. Mrs. Yohe was a tiny woman and it is thought her frail body may have been washed some distance away, if not caught in underbrush which lines the bank of the murky stream.

Last night hundreds of people visited the scene of the accident, but all efforts to find the missing body failed.

Funeral Tomorrow

The funeral of Mrs. Klawitter, who died after the accident, will be held from the residence at 1:30 tomorrow afternoon, 1123 South Second street and at 2 o'clock from the German Lutheran church, Rev. Gamm officiating and Mrs. Theo. Mannstadt in charge.

At the time of the accident the three women were on their way to the home of Mrs. Yohe, which is located just south of the Heileman ice-house on the causeway. Mrs. Yohe was 23 years of age.

OSHKOSH TO HAVE UNION DEPOT

OSHKOSH, Wis., Sept. 19.—There is a report that an effort is being made to buy property in the section of the city bounded by Main, Division, Polk and Church streets, by the Wisconsin Central, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul and the Wisconsin & Northern company, which has been generally credited with being the property of the Illinois Central railway.

If the proposition goes through, it is said, the Wisconsin Central will continue to Neenah and thence north-west along the Lake Superior. The Milwaukee road will run its trains over the Central lines from Oshkosh to Neenah, thence over an extension of the Central to Menasha, thence to Appleton over its own line from Appleton reaching the east over its own road to Hilbert Junction, extending to Lake Michigan and Manitowish, tapping its eastern line, which runs north of Milwaukee through Plymouth and Chilton.

This will give the Milwaukee a track from Oshkosh to Appleton and Manitowish through portions of the state.

The Illinois Central will continue running trains from Chicago to a point three miles from Madison over its own track, going into Madison over the Milwaukee road and then taking a direct line to Ripon or Brandon, thence to Oshkosh. From Oshkosh to Menasha it will run over the Wisconsin Central tracks, continuing to Appleton over the tracks of the Milwaukee and at Appleton, connecting with its northern line, which is being built to Shawano and Crandon.

JUST REPORTED ROBBERY TO POLICE AS "USUAL"

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—"I reported the robbery of my house just as a matter of form," said Dr. A. J. Mitchell of Edgemont avenue today, who had returned from his summer vacation and found his house looted. "It's really nothing out of the ordinary," he continued. "It happens every summer and I have come to expect it and I just let the police know that I have returned and have found my unknown guests visited me as usual."

The burglars had lived a week or more in Dr. Mitchell's house.

BRYAN IN SOUTH CAROLINA

(Tribune Special Service.)

COLUMBUS, S. C., Sept. 19.—This was Bryan day in Columbia, the democratic leader arriving in the city this morning for the purpose of delivering an address on the democratic issues. The local crowd that turned out to greet the Nebraskan was augmented by the presence of a considerable number of visitors from other parts of the state.

Bullets Scare Passengers

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—With pistol bullets humming like bumble bees about their ears, two hundred passengers on an Ocean avenue trolley car returning from the Gravesend races and another bound for Sheepshead bay from Manhattan were thrown into a panic. The shots were fired by two men who had killed a third.

Both cars were open. As they arrived at the spot, the passengers, mostly women, saw two men with revolvers shooting at a third. At the first shot the man fell. As he was falling another entered his head.

The men who had shot him ran, pursued by fifty factory hands.

The two men turned and began firing at the crowd of pursuers, and the bullets went singing through the trolley cars, which had stopped. Passengers screamed and dove to get beneath the seats. Some tried to crawl beneath the car. Handsomely gowned women sat down on the floor, cowering behind the seats.

About the time the cars started, the shooting ceased and the two men disappeared.

Two Saved by Mere Boy

DULUTH, Minn., Sept. 19.—Ernest Olsen aged eleven years, was drowned in the bay yesterday and two other boys saved from a like fate only through the heroic action of another lad of eleven. The boys rescued were Arthur Olsen and Ernest Larson and the boy who pulled them out was Willie Loney.

The boys were log rolling, which was a favorite pastime with the boys of the neighborhood, the danger attending the sport lending zest to their enjoyment of it. Many of the youngsters can swim, but some of them cannot. When the boys gathered yesterday some one proposed that they try a ducking match.

The two Olsen boys and Ernest Larson were on the logs together when it suddenly turned and they were precipitated into the water. Willie Loney at once plunged into the water in an attempt to rescue the drowning boys. He got Arthur Olsen and Ernest Larson out after a great struggle and then plunged in to pull out Ernest Olsen. He was too late, however, reaching the boy just as he disappeared for the last time. Men in the neighborhood, attracted by the cries of the boys came to the scene and began a search for the Olsen boy's body. He was pulled out within ten minutes after he had disappeared beneath the water, but in spite of the efforts of physicians who quickly were summoned, it was impossible to resuscitate him.

POWERFUL HEATERS AND FUEL SAVERS

We offer our customers several sizes and styles of

Jewel Oak Heaters

Which, after years of experience in stove selling, we are convinced have no equal as heat producers and fuel savers.

They are made staunch and durable with a hot blast ring that burns the gas half of the fuel and consumes the smoke, heavy cast bodies and extra heavy fire pots, Duplex grates, large ash pits and feed doors.

All joints are air tight and dampers and check drafts are provided, which insure perfect control of the fire.

We sell Jewel Oak Heaters at $6.00 to $28.00

You should call and examine these heaters and see the many features in which they excel others of similar construction.

3,800,000 Jewel stoves in use is the best evidence of their exceptional merit.

Major League of St. Paul is for Benefit of Players

Believing that the Champs should receive the largest crowds of the year in the games with St. Paul Saturday and Sunday, fan headquarters have agreed to post no scores of the games until after the games are finished and the ball crowds reach down town.

This decision has been reached by the proprietors of the stores. They believe all ought to attend and will not furnish results to those unpatriotic enough to remain at home to secure the scores by telephone.

Following is an announcement issued by the stores in which the scores were posted every night:

La Crosse, Sept. 19th, 1906.

We respectfully inform all friends and patrons that during the series of games to be played between La Crosse and St. Paul we will not answer any telephone inquiries or post any scores until after each game. As we believe that La Crosse should show its loyalty to the Champions by attending the games in person and not by proxy.

ANTI-LA FOLLETTE IS DE-MENOR OF THE NOMINEESConnor Who Like Ceasar is Ambitious is Directing "Jim" in Campaign Decidedly "Stalwart"

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 19.—Letters from the rival republican camps in Wisconsin are being sent out to the nominees for the legislature with a view of getting control of the platform convention to be held here a week from Tuesday. The nominees for state offices, members of the senate and assembly, and also the hold-over senators of the republican faith, will meet on Sept. 25, in the capitol, in accordance with the provisions of the primary election law, for the purpose of formulating and adopting a platform.

Senator La Follette believes he can control this convention and thereby regain the prestige which he lost by the defeat of I. L. Lenroot, his candidate for republican gubernatorial nomination. Many of the legislative nominees are faithful La Follette men and the fight between the La Follette and the Davidson-Connor people will be brisk to get control of the platform making gathering.

W. D. Connor has placed upon Gov. Davidson the work of writing to the nominees, "before La Follette can get them," to gain assurance that they will stand in the convention for the head of the ticket and for what Gov. Davidson demands in the way of a platform. This demand will be a positive declaration in favor of carrying further the reforms inaugurated by the republican party in this state in the last ten years.

It is probable that any mention of La Follette's name in connection with his services in the senate will be resisted by the Davidson-Connor people who want a brief platform confined to state issues. Senator La Follette has been in conference this week at his country home at Maple Bluff near here with close friends and political advisers, and it is believed that a definite program of action in the state convention has been agreed upon.

Gov. Davidson and State Chairman W. D. Connor held five days of conferences at Milwaukee. They declare they have not made out a program for the platform convention, but that they have found that republicans are desirous of having a simple, vigorous, direct statement of party determination to press forward the reform program, and to leave out mention of national issues or national office-holders.

BANGOR VOTES
HIGH LICENSE

Bangor voted to increase license from $200 to $350 in the village at the special election yesterday. The "tee-totalers" won the election by four votes, mustering their entire strength to make the license as high as possible.

The vote for $200 license was 75 and for $350 license 79. Great interest was taken in the election and a large number of votes were cast, nearly every one allowed to cast a ballot doing so.

IRVINE'S
429 Main StreetJUDGE BRYANT SAYS VETS' HOME WON'T BE PROBEDCharges by Former Inmate are Called to Attention of Chairman of Board, of La Crosse

Attorney W. F. Bryant, president of the board of trustees of the Wisconsin Veterans Home at Waupaca, has received a list of charges from Captain A. C. Smith, a former inmate of the home, which may result in an investigation of the institution. Smith is general manager and treasurer of the Veteran's Voice.

In his charges Captain Smith says: "This is an appeal to our patriotic citizens and more particularly to his honor, Governor J. C. Davidson, for relief from the other tyranny that exists in this or any other state, where we are forbidden the most precious of an American citizen's rights. Then it is time to do as we did from '61 to '65—fight our enemies, or the board of trustees."

"We demand that the governor appoint a committee to meet at Waupaca at the earliest moment, said committee to be composed of one republican, one democrat and one socialist, and no member of the G. A. R., as they are particeps criminis before the fact. This is our ultimatum."

It is because of alleged ill treatment of inmates Captain Smith is on the warpath. He was dismissed from the home by the home by the commandant, Colonel J. H. Woodnorth.

He represents what appears to be an affidavit from Henrietta Cordes, whose husband was an inmate of the home, dying Nov. 30, 1905, alleging that for her two children one of whom is a cripple, she had received an order for four loaves of bread a week and an order for a half a ton of coal and that is all she has received from the home since the death of her husband with the exception of a broom, although the home receives from the state $3 per week for her two children.

"N 'Smith Is Crazy'" "Smith is crazy and the charges are all rot," said Mr. Bryant today. "The same charges were preferred last winter and the state board of control held an investigation, acquitting the management of the home. The charges were found to be without foundation at that time."

"Not satisfied with this, Smith had the matron arrested twice on serious charges, and each time she was acquitted by the justice. This shows the nonsense in the entire matter."

"I am president of the board and will preside at the meeting on October 5 when the charges will be brought before the board formally. I have a copy of them now. They are the same old thing."

stration of the esteem in which they hold the candidate. Whistles blew for half an hour and a large crowd collected at the home of Mr. Dahl.

There were speeches by leading citizens and music by the local band. Mr. Dahl responded, thanking his neighbors and friends for their evidence of good will, saying:

"The friends of the people of this village, town, and county is more of a pleasure to me than the nomination to the office of state treasurer. I feel grateful to the people of this state for the confidence they have reposed in me."

JUDGE LET CHARGE OF CONTEMPT GO;
FINED HIM

Martin Thoreson, who placed himself in contempt of court before Judge Brindley yesterday afternoon by swearing and cursing everyone in sight, was fined $5 and costs, $20, after pleading guilty to a charge of assault and battery, brought by John W. Stenson. Thoreson lives at Coon Valley.

After his antics in running amuck in the court room, Thoreson was taken to the sheriff's office to "sober up." He did this and was arraigned on a charge of assault. He pleaded guilty, blaming drunkenness for the crime. Judge Brindley accordingly assessed a fine.

Thoreson was given a receipt for $20.20 so that when he awoke at home this morning, he would know where he spent his money.

Judge Brindley did not prefer a contempt charge, because Thoreson was drunk when he "sassed" the court.

Find Hunter's
Skeleton

HELENA, Mont., Sept. 19.—Perhaps a story of crime is contained in the discovery made on Kimber island in the Missouri river near Townsend by John M. Seiger while hunting. He came across the bleached bones of a man who had evidently been dead for two years, according to the opinion of doctors who examined the gruesome find. All the bones were found except the upper part of the head.

Doctors were of the opinion that the man when in life was about 5 feet 11 inches tall. He wore a pair of brown corduroy pants, and a pair of new shoes, No. 9. Pants and shoes were in a good state of preservation. The indications are that he was in his shirtsleeves at the time of his death.

There were in the pants pocket a silver watch and a pocketknife. Nothing else was found by which he could be identified.

JEWISH NEW YEAR 5677

(Tribune Special Service.) NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—The setting sun this evening ushers in the Jewish new year 5677. It is a feast of marked significance in the religious calendar of the Jews and is observed by reformed and orthodox alike, except that the former observe one and the latter two days. In all congregations the ancient ceremony of blowing the shofar, or ram's horn, is still used. In the orthodox congregations, which cling most tenaciously to the old-time ritual, one of the customs is for the men to appear in the temples wearing shrouds to typify the significance of the day as a reminder of death.

It matters not how distant any Jew has kept himself from his co-religionists, on New Year's day and the holy day that follows he is found in the synagogue. For that reason it is impossible to accommodate the large number that desire to attend services and therefore in many sections of the metropolis, particularly on the lower East Side, scores of public halls are secured for the services. During the holy days money is collected for charitable institutions and organizations.

FORMER WIFE IS THE COOK

DANVILLE, Ill., Sept. 19.—A man living with two women, to both of whom he has been lawfully wedded, and one of whom is divorced and employed by him as a cook in the household of the other, is a most astonishing situation which has been attracting much attention here.

W. V. Venable, a merchant of Danville, was a good many years ago married to Nannie Sizemore. Not many months ago he tired of life with his spouse and a divorce suit was entered, the result being that a decree was granted him. He, however, immediately employed his former wife as a domestic in his household. Soon afterward Venable met Mrs. Samuel Skipwith, a widow who is a teacher in one of the public schools, and becoming infatuated with this woman he decided to again become a benedict. Accordingly a proposal and acceptance followed. Preparations were then begun for the wedding, and the former wife of the prospective bridegroom was required to prepare the feast attendant upon the marriage of her former lord and consort to a woman who had succeeded her in his affections. She, however, made no protest against performing these duties, and with apparent willingness cooked the cakes and other delicacies required. According to reports the three are now living happily and contented under the same roof.

TOO MUCH PROPERTY; GIVE IT TO CHURCH

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 19.—Possessing more property than he needs in his old age and wishing to make sure that his wishes shall not be thwarted after he is dead, Addison J. Nowlen, known as "the sage of Irving park," gave away two houses one to each of two Irving Park churches. To the First Baptist church of the suburb he gave a residence worth $4,000 and which brings in a handsome monthly revenue. The Reformed Presbyterian church, also of Irving Park, was made the beneficiary of the other donation, a $3,000 modern residence, which also produces good revenues in rent. Each of the houses is located in the choicest residence section of Irving Park and built on a spacious lot, with broad lawns and shade trees.

In the library of his home Mr. Nowlen who is almost an octogenarian, met the trustees of the two churches. There in the presence and with the approval of his wife, who has been his helpmeet fifty-six years, he signed and acknowledged two deeds conveying the titles to the two churches. He then delivered one deed to each body of trustees. The gifts were accepted and grateful acknowledgements were made in speeches voicing the esteem in which the donor is held by his friends and neighbors.

OMAHA ICE TRUST REFUSES ICE TO WITNESSES AGAINST THEM

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 19.—In pursuance of his policy announced a few days ago Mayor Dahlman caused the arrest of the driver of an ice wagon and of his helper and checker for refusing to sell ice to Mrs. C. W. Eckerman, complaining witness in a suit which recently resulted in the conviction and fining of the Omaha Ice & Storage company and its president, John A. Doe, charges of short weighing. Since the trial the company has refused to sell to the witnesses who testified against them. Every other company in the city has also refused to sell them ice. The men were later released under bonds of $100 each furnished by Mr. Doe.

A grand jury has been called to investigate the charges of an illegal trade agreement among the various companies of the city.

BIG CANADIAN STRIKE

WINNIPEG, Man., Sept. 19.—Four thousand went on a strike yesterday. The teamsters are considering a sympathetic strike.

NEWS AND NOTES OF SPORT

Veteran Sam Thompson played eight games with Detroit. He made 7 hits and had 16 chances without an error.

In a game against Boston recently Laporte of the Highlanders batted 1000. Four times up and four hits, including a home run, two three-baggers and a single for a total of eleven. This is the record of the season.

It is said that the Cleveland club paid $6,000 for Pitcher Berger of Columbus and $3,000 for Liebhart of Memphis.

The owners of the Boston club in the National league have not drafted or bought a minor for next season. Must be going to sell sure this time.

The Indianapolis club is the highest salaried team in the American association. It is also the tail-end in the pennant race.

They are getting together a nice bunch of money in Rochester for the local ball team if it lands one-two-three in the Eastern league race.

No wonder they call Willie Keeler the "scientific" hitter. He struck out but 13 times in five years.

Manager Babb of Memphis will have to hustle to get three men anywhere near the equal of Liebhart, Suggs and Nicholls.

The baseball fans of Houston, Texas, are sore over the showing of their team. After winning the first-half season pennant they started the second half by winning eighteen straight games and then went to the bad entirely winding up in third place.

The Breath of Life.

It's a significant fact that the strongest animal of its size, the gorilla, also has the largest lungs. Powerful lungs means powerful creatures. How to keep the breathing organs right should be man's chiefest study. Like thousands of others, Mrs. Ora A. Stephens, of Port Williams, O., has learned how to do this. She writes: "Three bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery stopped my cough of two years and cured me of what my friends thought consumption. O, it's grand for throat and lung troubles." Guaranteed by O. T. Erhart, druggist. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

FIGHT FOR THE PARTY CON- TROL

(Tribune Special Service.)

HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 19.—Republicans of Connecticut are gathering for their state convention. Rollin S. Woodruff of New Haven is to be the gubernatorial nominee. The make-up of the remainder of the ticket is likely to bring to the surface the contest for control of the party between the faction headed by United States Senator Morgan G. Bulkeley and the one led by Allan S. Paige of Bridgeport.

ANGLO-FRENCH AMENITIES

(Tribune Special Service.)

ABERDEEN, Sept. 19.—The work of promoting friendly intercourse between men of light and leading in Great Britain and France still goes on. This time it is a visit from a party of distinguished Frenchmen who arrived in Aberdeen this morning to attend the fourth anniversary meeting of the Franco-Scottish society. At noon the French and Scottish branches of the society assembled at the town hall, where they were received by the Earl of Aberdeen, and afterwards entertained at a banquet by the magistrates and town council. The business of the meeting will terminate at the end of the week, but the French guests will remain in Aberdeen during the coming week in order that they may be present at the visit of the King and Queen in connection with the celebration of the quinqucentenary of the University.

Because her stomach was so weakened by useless drugging that she could not eat, Mrs. Mary H. Walters, of St. Clair St., Columbus, O., was literally starving to death. COUNT PRIMARY VOTES NEXT WEEK

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 19.—On petitions of A. H. Dahl of Westby, apparent republican nominee for state treasurer, and of James A. Frear of Hudson, apparent republican nominee for secretary of state, Chief Justice Cassoday of the supreme court has appointed Circuit Court Judge Fowler of Portage to act in place of State Treasurer J. J. Kempf and Circuit Court Judge Stevens of Madison to act in place of Secretary of State W. L. Houser as members of the state board of canvassers of the primary election returns. As both Kempf and Houser are interested parties, they could not act on the board of canvassers. The third member of the board is Attorney General-Sturdevant.

The canvassing board will meet at 10 o'clock next Tuesday morning to formally pass on the returns. The platform conventions will meet here at 12 o'clock noon on the same day to make the party platforms. While this will give only two hours in which the returns are to be canvassed and certificates issued to state, senatorial and assembly nominees (where the last named are necessary), it is believed that it will be sufficient. The official returns have been received from all but except Milwaukee county. Attorney John M. Nelson of Madison, republican, was elected over Attorney Grant Thomas of Madison, independent, for the unexpired term of the late H. C. Adams by a plurality of 6,395 votes. Nelson received a total of 10,098 votes and Thomas 3,703. Nelson was nominated for the regular term over M. S. Dudgeon by a majority of 3,116, receiving a total of 7,688 to Dudgeon's 4,572.

SALOONISTS WIN IN LICENSE WAR AT MANITOWOC

MANITOWOC, Wis., Sept. 19.—Manitowoc had a special election yesterday to determine whether the ninety saloons in the city shall pay a low or high license. The figures show that the low license of $200 is favored by a majority. This is the result of the voting:

For $200 license.....1,413
For $350 license.....76
For $500 license.....513

The figures do not tell the story of the election and the quiet feud that has been waged between two classes in the city of ships and carriages.

William Rahr, one of the best known business men in the city, until last night was president of the Manitowoc Industrial club. He is also president of the Manitowoc Malting company. He advocated the low license.

William Hess, president of the Manitowoc Boiler works, is a prominent member of the club of which Mr. Rahr was president. He advocated the $500 license and worked hard for its passage. While his work proved futile, there is some surprise over the fact that 518 votes were mustered for the maximum fee for selling liquors.

The fight that has been waged previous to the election not only had its culmination in the counting of votes last night but the excitement was raised to a higher pitch by a letter to the press from Mr. Rahr in which he takes his fellow club member, Mr. Hess, seriously to task for working against the interests of the side that he favored. Mr. Rahr in his letter did not stop at an attack on the other side. He announced his decision to resign as president of the Industrial club.

Manitowoc has ninety saloons which have been paying and will now continue to pay a $200 license. Approximately, there is a saloon for every thirty adults of the city.

Humane Officer C. H. Berry Appeals for Cast off Apparell to Cover Needy Ones

At the meeting of the La Crosse County Humane society held last evening Officer C. H. Berry made the following report:

Visits made 87
Complaints received 64
Neglect of children 7
Homes found 1
Boys returned to homes 2
Girls removed from immoral homes 1
Horses humanely killed 1
Dogs humanely killed 3
Cats humanely killed 4
Overloading corrected 1

Mr. Berry reports that the demand for clothing, especially children's clothing, at this time is much greater than the supply and that if any one has apparel of this kind they should notify him and he will call for it.

During the past few meetings the society has also taken up the question of compulsory education and the curfew law in connection with their work.

Further educational work in connection with the society will be taken up at the next meeting and they expect to have some of the educators present to voice their views on the subject.

STATE PATRIOTIC INSTRUCTOR TORCRONON MAKES REPORT

Appoints Post Instructors and Gives Details of Work of his Office for the Year

Edward Cronon, patriotic instructor of the Wisconsin branch of the Grand Army of the Republic, has issued a list of instructions to the assistant instructors about the state. The circular to them is in the interests of the old soldier, telling the instructors to inform the young of the deeds of their forefathers.

It especially requests that flags be procured for the schools, in this way instilling a large degree of patriotism.

Following are the instructions: "The commander of your post having confidence in your ability and zeal for the work, has nominated you as Assistant Patriotic Instructor for your post; and, relying upon his good judgment, you are herewith appointed to that honorable position.

"The duties of the office, you will find, will become more agreeable and fascinating as you become better acquainted with them. Industry in the work, and zeal for the cause that we are so much interested in, should ever be your motto. You will find on page 357, Statutes of 1898, the law relating to the procurement of flags for schools. There should be a flag on every school house and one in every room. The Flag Statute should be learned and given as often as the teacher thinks necessary; every day would be too often and would have a tendency perhaps to make the exercise irksome and monotonous, and therefore without the proper effect on the minds of the children. This matter may safely be left to the teacher. Work in harmony with the teachers and school authorities.

"Superintendents of schools will furnish you with statistics necessary in making up your report to me. Have your report ready so as to reach me not later than June 1st, so as to give me time in which to make my report to the Department Encampment. This gives me but little time at the best, as I wish the reports to include Memorial Day exercises. You can see, then, how necessary it will be to prompt in sending reports. The flag salute is given thus: the teacher sends a boy or girl to bring the flag into the room and, as it is brought on the platform, all rise and bring the open right hand close to the right side of the forehead, palm toward the flag. The words are, "I pledge allegiance to my Flag and the Republic for which it stands; one Nation indivisible with liberty and justice for all." At the word flag the hands are extended toward the flag and held there until the words of the salute are completed after which all drop their hands to the side and sing "America."

"It will be your duty, especially on patriotic holidays to visit your schools together with your comrades in uniform, as this will make more of an impression on the children than we old soldiers can understand. If called upon to say something, do so, as this will also appeal to the teachers and children, and you will feel the better yourself for having performed a patriotic duty. The teaching of the principles of patriotism is the last act in the drama for us old veterans. We saved the nation when it was about to be torn asunder. When enemies were in front of us, and some of them in our rear, we went forward without boasting, ready then as now to give all for our country.

"Now we are engaged in teaching the principles of patriotism and peace. If these lessons are properly taught and learned, respect and love for the flag of our country and obedience to its laws inculcated with liberty and justice for all; then there will be no place for anarchy or anarchists in our beloved country. The thousands who have been born since the war, and those other thousands who have come to us from abroad, do not, and perhaps can not, realize the importance of these things as do the men who left home and friends to save the nation. Let us teach them the love of country and how to preserve it for all time to come. This is the mission of the Grand Army and our duty to the coming generations who are soon to take an active part in shaping the destinies of the greatest republic on earth."
